

The Mauritshuis is home to the best Dutch paintings from the Golden Age.

Vermeer's Girl with a Pearl Earring.

Charles Groenhuijsen is often requested to act as a speaker and facilitator. He has been active in journalism, in which he has built a broad range of experience in written media. He worked at public broadcasters as a presenter and as a reporter and presenter at Dutch National Broadcasting Services, among which 13 years in the United States.

Invitation Meet & Greet Dutch WASH sector and SWA delegation

Institutional WASH for Sustainable Development Goals in the spotlight

You are warmly invited to the networking event on the 4th of December 2014 in the Mauritshuis. The Mauritshuis is situated in the heart of The Hague right next to government centre.

This seventeenth-century monument is home to the best Dutch paintings from the Golden Age. Masterpieces such as Vermeer's Girl with a Pearl Earring and The Anatomy Lesson of Dr. Nicolaes Tulp by Rembrandt, are on permanent display in the museum rooms. The museum is in walking distance from the conference venue at The Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

date: Thursday 4th of December 2014

time: 18.30 hours – 20.30 hours programme: Meet & Greet Dutch WASH Sector, 'walking dinner', guided tour through Masterpieces of Rembrandt and Vermeer

location: Mauritshuis, The Hague

Meet & Greet SWA Steering Committee and Dutch WASH sector

This event provides a chance for the Dutch WASH sector and the SWA Steering Committee to meet each other in an informal setting. It is also an opportunity to highlight issues that both parties find of key importance.

Short case studies

Under the facilitation of Charles Groenhuijsen a number of short case studies will be presented by representatives of NGOs and the private sector to demonstrate the innovative ways that they have focused on WASH in schools, health care facilities and in the work place.

We look forward to receiving you as our guest.

